

Salient Features of the English Digital Learning Platform Reading, Writing, Listening & Speaking

- Covers all the principal elements of CEFR levels A1/A2/B1/B2 for Reading, Writing, Speaking, and Listening skills. CEFR C1 and C2 will be covered in our new advanced course which is currently in preparation (to be launched in April 2024).
- Assists in IELTS Coaching and after undertaking this programme, the test taker can score as high as 5.5 in the IELTS test.
- The programme is ideal for 10 years and above.
- The programme is aligned to New Education Policy 2020
- The major objectives of the course are to enhance learners' positive personality and communication skills.
- Introduction to the global culture through activities and moral stories.
- The course is divided into two parts one is essential English basic language skill which includes an introduction to the English language and another part is an intermediate course in English language which provide an introduction to rules and regulation with grammar. This is not only about learning of language it is all about 360-degree improvement of the English language with the help of animations stories interviews games and end number of activities with rewards and an end number of attempts
- Contains Basic and Intermediate programmes each comprising of 160 interactive guided learning hours with 464 activities in basic and 295 in Intermediate course. The basic and intermediate course has to be completed in 365 days (from the issue date of login/password)
- The platform makes use of games and tests to re-enforce learning, revise vocabulary, spelling, listening skills, basic numeracy, sentence structure, matching upper case and lower-case letters, tenses, possessive pronouns, idioms and phrases and focus on daily use English and work or study related English etc.
- Each learner has their own dashboard permitting progress tracking, access to assessments, digital notebook, grammar guide, voice recorder, etc.
- Maximum use of graphics and illustration to make things more stimulating, engaging and exciting.
- Every successful learner to be awarded downloadable certificate endorsed by City & Guilds UK